

Autofy Provides Simple Solution for Dorse

Who is Dorse:

Since 1965, Dorse and Company have been committed to delivering quality products, innovative solutions, and customer satisfaction to the HVAC industry in the Pacific Northwest.

What did Dorse Need in an Integration Tool:

An easy way to integrate their sales process between Salesforce and Fishbowl.

What did Dorse Want in an Integration Tool:

- Flexibility in the direction of their data flows.
- A tool with a simple and easy to use design.
- A secure tool that provided predictability in their integration process.

What made Autofy a good fit for Dorse:

The Propelware Team took the time to fully understand Dorse's integration needs and kept the solution simple. This helped Dorse avoid costly and overly complicated errors when syncing data. Since Integrating, Autofy has been a solid platform with continued support for new integration enhancements.

Advice from Dorse:

"Understand your needs, understand your goals and stay engaged throughout the process"
- Will, President

About Us:

Propelware, the makers of Autofy, have been building business class integration solutions for over 15 years. Our Autofy platform was built around automating QuickBooks and connecting it with systems such as Salesforce, Shopify, and many other applications small businesses use in their day to day practice. It's our passion to help you achieve this and our pleasure to show you how.

<http://www.propelware.com>